

Resolution Partners specialises in family mediation, divorce mediation and Family Dispute Resolution (FDR), along with child-inclusive mediation, parenting coordination and collaborative practice.

We believe that if litigation can be avoided, it should. Our focus is on helping families and individuals resolve disputes with dignity, clarity and respect.

Helping separating families reach respectful and child focussed solutions about parenting, property and finances through mediation.

RESOLUTION

PARTNERS

DISPUTE RESOLUTION SPECIALISTS

+61 7 3113 3700

admin@resolutionpartners.com.au

Mediation/
Family
Dispute
Resolution

Respectful solutions for complex disputes.

www.ResolutionPartners.com.au

Dr Anne Purcell

PhD (UQ), M Ed (Harvard), B Ed St (Hons), Dip T, AACM (TD) FDRP, FRI Ad Med NMAS, TEP

Dr Anne Purcell is a dispute resolution specialist focusing on the psychology of interpersonal communication and conflict, specialising in high-conflict matters or difficult personalities. She practices as a mediator, family dispute resolution practitioner (FDRP), parenting coordinator and collaborative professional, with a key focus on assisting families and individuals in the family law space.

Our Fees

- + Initial Consultation
$450 +GST per party
- + Mediation/Family Dispute Resolution (FDR)
Full Day: $1,925 +GST per party
Half Day: $1,175 +GST per party
Deposit: $500 +GST per party
- + Child-Inclusive Mediation
$3,225 +GST per party

Our Process

- + Intake/Initial Consult
Each party meets individually and confidentially with the mediator to discuss issues, assess suitability for mediation, and determine next steps. An invitation can be sent to the other party, if applicable.
- + Mediation/Family Dispute Resolution (FDR)
The mediator meets with both parties (and their lawyers if applicable) — in person or via video — to help identify issues and work toward mutual agreement.

“

Dr Purcell's guidance was crucial to finding solutions at a time when it seemed impossible – cannot thank her enough.

–J.Taylor

